Dear Northwest Christian School Families,

I am looking forward to this year's harvest festival on Sunday, and parent/teacher conferences next Monday. Our annual harvest festival is a fun fall party for our kids that offers families an engaging alternative to trick or treating.

Monday our NCS family will be engaging in parent-teacher conference meetings. It is important to include your children in this exercise as these data-driven conferences are focused on student performance.

Our NCS educators look forward to meeting with you and discussing with you your child's academic data.
